Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive-Nuclear-Test Ban Treaty

The Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty (CTBT) has now been rescheduled to take place from 11 to 13 November 2001 at United Nations Headquarters.

Delegations who have not yet inscribed in the list of speakers for the general exchange of views (item 10 of the draft provisional agenda of the Conference - document CTBT-Art.XIV/2001/1/Rev.1) are kindly asked to communicate their request in writing to the Secretariat of the Conference (room S-3140). States will be enlisted on a first-come-first served basis, with the proviso that representatives at the highest level will be given priority.

Furthermore, in accordance with item 11 of the draft provisional agenda, States which have not signed the Treaty will be able to make statements at the Conference. Delegations wishing to be inscribed in the list of speakers are kindly requested to contact the Secretariat of the Conference.

For enquiries regarding the provisional list of speakers, please contact Ms. Myrna Peña (tel.: (212) 963-4022; fax: (212) 963-8892).

As a general guidance, it is assumed that speakers, at the discretion of the President, will talk for up to five minutes each. The Secretariat also wishes to advise that it is the wish of the majority of the States which have ratified the CTBT that the Conference be attended at a high level.

Delegations are reminded that credentials should be issued for representatives of ratifiers and the names of alternate representatives and advisers, in accordance with rule 3 of the draft rules of procedure (document CTBT-Art.XIV/2001/2). Credentials may be submitted to Ms. Mika Murakami, Department for Disarmament Affairs (room S-3140D, tel.: (212) 963-9309, fax: (212) 963-8892), if possible, not later than 2 November 2001.

A list of participants will be prepared for the Conference on the basis of credentials and/or written lists of delegations that are provided to the Secretariat of the Conference. This information should be submitted to Ms. Mika Murakami, Department for Disarmament Affairs (room S-3140D, tel.: (212) 963-9309, fax: (212) 963-8892), if possible, not later than 2 November 2001.

(b) International strategy for disaster reduction

(c) Implementation of the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification in those Countries Experiencing Serious Drought and/or Desertification, particularly in Africa)

(d) Convention on Biological Diversity

(e) Further implementation of the Programme of Action of Small Island Developing States

(g) Promotion of new and renewable sources of energy, including the implementation of the World Solar Programme 1996-2005

The Committee resumed its consideration of the sub-items and heard statements by the representatives of Zimbabwe, Ecuador, Mongolia, Trinidad and Tobago, Burkina Faso, the Dominican Republic, the Republic of Korea, Antigua and Barbuda (on behalf of the Alliance of Small Island States (AOSIS)) and Egypt.

Statements were also made by the representatives of the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), the World Meteorological Organization (WMO), the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

The observer of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (SCRC) made a statement.

The Chairman read out the recommendations contained in the Economic and Social Council resolution 2001/35 regarding sub-item 98 (b) (International Strategy for Disaster Reduction).

The Chairman informed the Committee that because there were no inscriptions on the list of speakers for the next two meetings scheduled under the cluster, the meetings had been cancelled. The Chairman thus declared that the Committee had concluded its general discussion of agenda item 98, namely, sub-items (b), (c) (d), (e) and (g).

Organization of work

The Chairman of the Committee reminded delegations that the deadline for submission of draft proposals under agenda sub-items 98 (b), (c), (d), (e) and (g), was Friday, 2 November 2001, at 6 p.m.

THIRD COMMITTEE 26th meeting

Organization of work

Following a statement by the Chairman, the Committee agreed that its consideration of item 117 (Racism and racial discrimination) would not begin until the report of the World Conference on Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance had been issued. The Committee agreed that it would begin its consideration of item 118 (Right of peoples to self-determination) as scheduled. The splitting of the joint consideration of agenda items 117 and 118 was as a result of extraordinary circumstances and did not constitute a precedent.

Right of peoples to self-determination [118]

The Committee began its consideration of the item. A statement was made by the Special Rapporteur on the question of the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination.

The Committee then engaged in a dialogue with the Special Rapporteur on the question of the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination, in which the representatives of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya and Cuba, took part.

Statements were made by the representatives of Belgium (on behalf of the European Union), Egypt and China.

A statement was also made by the observer for Palestine.

27th meeting

Right of peoples to self-determination [118]

The Committee continued its consideration of the item and heard statements by the representatives Ukraine, Israel and Liechtenstein.

Right of reply

A statement in the exercise of the right of reply was made by the observer for Palestine.

Organization of work

The chairman made a statement about the organization of the Committee's work.

TREATY EVENT - MULTILATERAL TREATIES ON TERRORISM
(UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS)
(10-16 November 2001)

Signature of, and deposit of instruments relating to multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General

The above event will take place from 10 November to 16 November 2001 at United Nations Headquarters. Appropriate facilities, including media coverage, will be made available for treaty actions to be undertaken in a solemn setting.

Delegations that have notified the Secretary-General, in response to his letter of 4 October 2001, and those still intending to do so, of their intention to sign or deposit instruments relating to multilateral treaties under his custody, in particular those concerning terrorism, are advised to contact the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs promptly to arrange appointments (room S-3200; tel.: (212) 963-5047; fax: (212) 963-3693).

* Date of receipt of the relevant documents.

Delegations are also requested to submit copies of instruments including, where appropriate, texts of declarations and reservations, and, as necessary, required full powers to the Treaty Section at the latest by 7 November 2001 for verification.

It is recalled that, under the established international practice, only Heads of State, Heads of Government or Ministers for Foreign Affairs are empowered, by virtue of their functions, to sign treaties on behalf of States without having to produce full powers to that effect. Other representatives wishing to sign treaties must be in possession of appropriate full powers, which expressly authorize signature of specified treaties by a named representative issued by one of these authorities. Advice on full powers may be obtained from the Treaty Section. Further information on the event will be provided closer to 10 November 2001.

The texts and status of multilateral treaties which address various aspects of terrorism, can be obtained at the United Nations Treaty Collection Web site (http://untreaty.un.org.), including the following four Conventions deposited with the Secretary-General:

Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes against Internationally Protected Persons including Diplomatic Agents. New York, 14 December 1973;

International Convention against the Taking of Hostages. New York, 17 December 1979;

International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings. New York, 15 December 1997; and International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism. New York, 9 December 1999.
